Dear Friends,

December, 2019

We hope you all had a wonderful Thanksgiving! Our family was kept joyfully busy with family and friends visiting from out of state. This is our first Holliday Season here in Oklahoma. Although we miss him terribly and Pat's place at the table was empty now, his presence and love was and is all around us. We all have so much to be thankful for. A balanced life, I believe, starts with and ends in gratitude. Nothing stays the same, so maybe we should all strive to see something wonderful, no matter how small in each day. Make a conscious decision to be happy. Then infect as many as possible with that emotion!

This will be a relatively short letter. Again, our favorite recommendations are

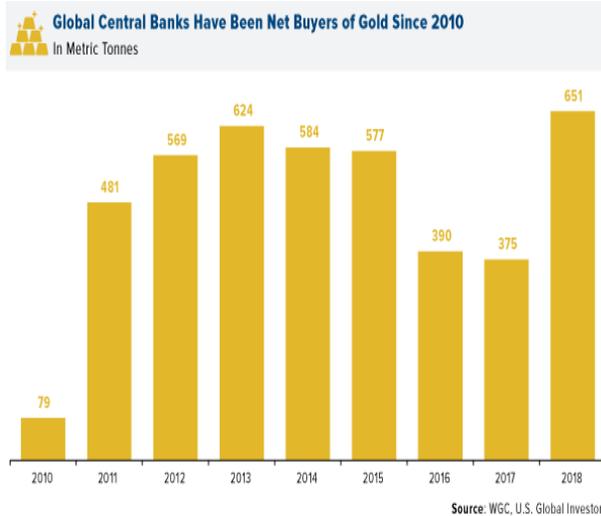

- 1.) Gold Coins and Bars
- 2.) Silver Coins and Bars (Christmas Rounds and U.S. Silver Eagles are a favorite for gifting)
- 3.) Platinum Coins and Bars
- 4.) United States Numismatic Coins graded by PCGS or NGC

2019 has been a record year for buying of Gold by Central Banks. The big money buyers are attempting to buy up as much gold as possible while the prices are low and the common man remains unaware. Growing risks to the Dollar and Euro have prompted some European Nations such as Germany to repatriate gold to safer places such as Paris and New York and other places around the world for storage by the Central Banks. Recently, Turkey, India, Russia and China have been among the largest buyers of Gold recently.

The U.S. is said to hold more than twice the gold reserves than that of other countries. From 1913 to 1961, the Federal Reserve was required to hold gold equal to up to 40% of the value of the currency.

It could be wise to take note of what big investors are doing with their money and why they are doing it. The Central banks currently are buying gold to diversify themselves from the U.S. dollar, and assets that are dollar denominated assets. It is a strategy aimed to protect against inflation and preserve that banks currency's purchasing power.

Country	Tonnes	Percent of Total Reserves
United States	8,134	76
Germany	3,367	72
Italy	2,452	67
France	2,436	61
Russia	2,219	20
China	1,937	3
Switzerland	1,040	6
Japan	765	3
India	618	7
Netherlands	613	68

The Global Debt bubble now precariously floats over us at $255 Trillion. Nearly three times the global economic output. It has grown to this astronomical size primarily due to cheap borrowing costs. Debt is an addiction and the pushers solution is more debt. When this bubble bursts, are you prepared?

There are some who are very frustrated by the suppressed prices metals markets. To them we would say, now is the time to be accumulating! This has been the longest running economic recovery in history. When recession or hyperinflation hits it will be a very treacherous world indeed. Before history is erased or duplicitously rewritten it might be a good idea to study and learn from it. At the present time, the stock market is way overdue for a correction and has nearly doubled from its pre crash highs. One of the biggest mistakes an investor can make is to get greedy. Don't hesitate to at least take your initial investment off the table if you have done well and put it into something tangible. When the stock market corrects, and it will, there will more than likely be massive unemployment as well as social and geopolitical conflicts.

We are asked often what we think of crypto currencies. They can be good and especially for those who got in pre 2010. Cryptos, are here to stay. However, I like physical precious metals better. The reason being, gold is a currency that can't be hacked. Also, governments don't like to be bypassed when it comes to taking the lion's share of your money. If crypto begins to pose a threat to a sovereign currency, do you believe it will be allowed to continue? What if they are taken down?

The bottom line is, deversify. Own Gold and Silver, own real estate and own some good stocks. Just don't get so attached that you get caught in a crash. Remember, paper investments can go to zero. Tangables especially precious metals have always been currency and are easy to recognize, transport or liquidate.

This prediction was sent to us this morning 12/6/19 from Roger Wiegand editor of Trader Tracks Newsletter and frequent speaker at our Wealth Protection Conferences.

Our forecasts are for a double in gold to $2970. Takes 18 months at least.

Silver has way more up side technically. $17.00 to $156. Why?

1-silver has a much larger commercial demand for several uses.

-2 silver has the "fear and security"

Buying pressures as well.

-3 for traders and investors silver has

Way more upside running room.

I like US silver coins first followed by leveraged trading in silver futures option spreads; and straight silver futures for bigger traders with deep pockets and iron stomachs...those are high risk.

For me I'll deep dive into coins followed by spreads in January.

Later, more ideas will appear in long Canadian dollar futures, and shorting Euro currency futures.

Long grain futures spreads should be attractive after the China trade Deal is signed which is imminent.

In my view the investors loaded with silver coins and suggested futures trades will have a great 2020.

I will also suggest a small limited list of stocks as well. Stocks will be very tricky but some good ones are coming for 2020. Roger wiegand

RECOMMENDATIONS
GOLD CATEGORY ONE INSURANCE

In this category of gold ownership you should be looking first at the common bullion coins in the one ounce size. These have the least amount of premium and will protect your buying the best. Our favorites include the one ounce American Gold Eagle , one ounce Canadian Maple Leaf, one ounce Austrian Philharmonic and the one ounce South African Krugerrand.

These coins are also available in gold weights of ½ oz., 1/4oz and 1/10oz for slightly higher premiums. Put as many of these away as you can budget while you can. You might want to pick a few up to be used as very special gifts throughout the year too!

GOLD CATEGORY TWO INSURANCE WITH A KICKER

We only recommend U.S. minted coins in this category and the in next. Because they are American coins, these are easily recognized and liquidated when the time comes.

While the modern gold and silver bullion coins were minted to be primarily for the intrinsic value of the metal, the older U.S Gold and Silver coins were minted to be used as currency.

The coins we recommend at this time ,in this category are the $20 Gold Liberty as well as the $20 Saint Gaudens Gold Coin. We like these coins in XF condition. They are available at a premium just slightly higher than the bullion coins and are cherished for their antiquity and semi-numismatic quality as well as their gold value. We enjoy helping our clients put together date sets of these beauties!. $20 Liberty or St Gaudens Type Double Eagles are nearly 1 full ounce of fine gold in content .9675 troy ounce.

Lightly circulated older U.S. coins are loved for their history, value and magnificence. Keep in mind that these are the coins with high bullion content and a very low semi-numismatic premium. The $10 Indian and $10 Type have .4638 troy ounce of fine gold. Call for current prices on Extra Fine, XF coins. 800-494-4149

GOLD CATEGORY THREE SPECULATION / NUMISMATIC

United States minted Gold coins that are graded by PCGS or NGC and are about 100 years old or more are available in many mint state grades for some of the lowest prices we've seen in ages. If you are able, these next few months could be your best opportunity to acquire some of these collectable, numismatic coins for years to come!

Whether you would like to know what might be the best value to invest in, or you are looking for a specific coin, CALL Resource Consultants, Inc. 800-494-4149

When gold moves, silver follows. Silver tends to be a bit more volatile than gold and the amount of silver storage space needed to $10,000.00 in silver is much more than the space a hand full of gold coins would need. However, silver is most certainly able to outperform gold in the near future. At this time, the gold/silver ratio is about 87 to one. Meaning it would take about 87 ounces of silver to buy one ounce of gold. With Silver being this tremendously undervalued, the time for adding silver to your precious metals portfolio is NOW!

SILVER CATEGORY ONE INSURANCE

In this insurance category of silver we still like the bags of 90% silver U.S. coins minted prior to 1965. The premium is low and they can be still readily available. These coins are no longer minted and when the supply is bought up the premiums can go up substantially!

A common question regarding 90% silver is “How much silver is in a bag of 90% silver?” To help you calculate: 90% silver coin is normally traded as “face value bags” in lots of $1000 $500 , or $250 and $100 bags. A full $1,000 Face Value bag contains approximately 715 ounces of pure silver. This takes into account the wear and tear that occurs during circulation.

To calculate what you are paying per ounce on 90% silver, use this example: if the price per face value is 13.60 then a thousand dollar bag would cost $13,600. Divide that by the number of ounces in the bag 715 and you see you are paying $19.02 per silver ounce. Then , it is easy to calculate that a half bag would cost $6800 and a quarter of a bag would be $3400.00 all being $19.02 per oz. A $100 face value bag would be $1360. These older U.S. coins are easily recognized and afford people the opportunity to have silver pieces smaller than one ounce which could be a very handy thing in purchasing situations where you might not want to trade a full ounce or more for something.

Next, consider picking up some bullion bars and rounds. Most rounds are purchased in 20 ounce rolls of one ounce pieces. However there are also some beautiful specialty rounds available in 2oz and 5oz sizes. Bars are normally 1oz, 5oz, 10oz or 100oz.

Next, look at the popular modern silver coins such as the American Eagle, Canadian Maple Leaf, Austrian Philharmonic, Australian Kangaroo, Mexican Libertad and British Britannia. Some of our clients like getting 20 and 25 coin rolls of each of these, especially for holiday giving. Sovereign coins such as these are minted by the government mints in each country, carry a face value and the nations they are minted from guarantee the purity and content to be correct. All of these are available by the roll or monster box.

SILVER CATEGORY TWO INSURANCE WITH A KICKER AND AND THREE~ SPECULATION

Morgan Silver Dollar      Peace Silver Dollar

These beautiful antiquities are still one of the most beloved of the American Silver coins ever minted. At this time, they are available at prices that compete with what they sold for a decade ago! Choose yours in a circulated condition ranging from XF to AU in rolls of 20 or in collectable numismatic Mint State conditions graded by PCGS or NCG. Call for availability and current pricing. 800-494-4149.

PLATINUM

Palladium had performed fantastically and we have seen platinum lagging behind gold. This could be the time to stock on you Platinum. Buy low; sell high could be a good plan here if you were one of the wise ones who picked up Palladium a few years ago. Regardless, adding some Platinum to your portfolio at this time could be a pretty smart move!
